

ZoomOnline Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

Introduction

Welcome to ZoomOnline, where our commitment is to provide you with an exceptional internet services. This Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") outlines the principles for the responsible and respectful use of our network, websites, systems, facilities, products, and services (collectively, the "Services"). By choosing ZoomOnline, you agree to comply with the terms of this AUP.

Prohibited Conduct

At ZoomOnline, we expect users to engage in responsible and respectful conduct. Prohibited activities include:

- Security Breaches and Obligations: Customers/Users are prohibited from violating the security of the Services, attempting unauthorized access, or causing security breaches.
- Violations of Law: Customers/Users must not use our Services to violate any applicable laws or regulations.
- Illegal Use: Engaging in illegal activities, including threats, invasion of privacy, credit card fraud, defamation, slander, and other violations of applicable laws, is not allowed.
- Inappropriate Content: Transmitting material that is inappropriate, obscene, indecent, defamatory, threatening, abusive, hateful, or excessively violent is strictly prohibited.
- Fraudulent/Misleading Content: Customers/Users must avoid transmitting fraudulent offers, false advertising, or deceptive statements.
- Intellectual Property: Customers/Users should not infringe upon third-party rights, including intellectual property rights.
- Harmful Content: Transmitting material that may harm or interfere with our Services or any third party's networks, systems, services, or websites is not allowed.
- Email and Unsolicited Messages: Sending unsolicited emails or engaging in spamming activities is not permitted.
- Third-Party Rules; Usenet: Customers/Users should adhere to the rules associated with search engines, subscription services, chat areas, bulletin boards, Web pages, USENET, or other services accessed via our Services.
- Inappropriate Actions: Conducting activities that may harm or interfere with the Services, other Customers/Users, or third-party networks is strictly prohibited.

Rights of ZoomOnline

At ZoomOnline, we reserve the right to maintain the integrity of our network and Services. This includes:

- Suspending or terminating Services for Customers/Users believed to have violated this AUP.

- Taking down or blocking access to any material violating this AUP.
- Cooperating with legal authorities and third parties in investigating alleged violations.
- Modifying this AUP at any time, with modifications becoming effective upon posting.

Responsibility for Content

ZoomOnline does not assume responsibility for content created or accessible through our Services and refrains from exercising editorial control. While we are not under obligation to actively monitor such material, we retain the right to do so when deemed necessary or on instruction from the relevant legal authority.

Reporting Violations

Violations of this AUP may be reported to ZoomOnline at abuse@ZoomOnline.com
Thank you for choosing ZoomOnline. We appreciate your commitment to responsible and respectful use of our Services.